Valentine Story Starters

I walked outside and saw a path of giant candy hearts. I decided to follow it. On the 5th heart.....

An arrow came speeding by me, but missed. It must be cupid's arrow! I decided to make a plan so that cupid couldn't hit me with his arrows.

Get a box of conversation hearts. Pick three conversation hearts from the box. Use the sets of words that you picked in a story.

It's Groundhog Day! Time to go up and out of my hole. When I peaked my head out, I saw a huge crowd of people.

A letter was on my desk with a big heart and it was signed "Your Secret Admirer". I decided to set a trap to find out who my secrete admirer is.

February Journal Writing

Make a list of 10 classic valentine treats. Circle your favorite.

What do you love about each of your family members that live in your house?

Write a list of ways that people make you feel loved.

What makes a good friend? Describe three characteristics that are important for best friends to have.

Make a list of as many things as you can that are red.

What is one thing you would change if you were the President?

If you could pick any super power, what would you pick? Why?

What dinner recipe could you make that you could mix Valentine's Day candy with?

Describe a rule that you think is a good rule to have. Now, describe a rule that you don't agree with. How would you change it?

What do you think it means to have big emotions? Invent an emoji and draw it.

Write a poem that starts with "Roses are red. Violets are blue."

What does a Valentines Day party need to include for you to have a great time?